Deb's words

One of the benefits of being my friend is that you can come to my house in your pajamas, no make-up and look like crap and I won't judge you..

Because I will also be in my pajamas, with no make-up looking like crap.

That's not really true. I won't have pyjamas on ----- that might be worse

HELLO

Harry Beckwith A retired Police Officer, 36 years in the job

He has been a member of the Macedon Ranges & District Motor Club for 16 years

He has stayed a active member of the club because of the friendships that have come about and have grown from his participation with people who have similar interests.

The blue oval is well represented in Harrys world. However he has mixed it up a bit.

His first car was 1948 Hillman sedan, it cost 110 pounds

Harry tells me his cars have been like children, they are all loved, but for different reasons, and for that reason he has no favourites. He has no dream car, because he is been happy with the cars he has.

His interests & hobbies? The RSL 17 years

A lawyer with a wife and 12 children needed to move because his rental agreement was terminated by the owner, who wanted to reoccupy the home. He was having a lot of difficulty finding a new house, when he said that he had 12 children no one would rent a home to him, because they felt that the children would destroy the place.

He couldn't say that he had no children, because he couldn't lie; we all know lawyers cannot and do not lie. So he sent his wife for a walk to the cemetery with 11 of their kids. He took the remaining one with him to see rental homes with the real estate agent.

He loved one of the homes and the price was right -- the agent asked: "How many children do you have?"

He answered: "Twelve."

The agent asked, "Where are the others?"

The lawyer, with his best courtroom sad look answered, "They're in the cemetery with their mother."

MORAL: It's not necessary to lie, one only has to choose the right words.. and don't forget, many politicians are, unfortunately failed lawyers.

Ring, ring...

Ring, ring...

Men's Help Line - Hello, you have reached the Men's Help Line. My name is Bob. How can I help you?

Hi Bob, I really need your advice on a serious problem. I have suspected for some time now that my wife has been cheating on me. You know, just the usual signs: The phone rings and when I answer, the caller hangs up. Plus, she goes out with the girls a lot. I usually try to stay awake to look out for her when she comes home, but I always fall asleep.

Anyway, last night about midnight, I woke up and she was not home, so I hid in the garage behind my boat and waited for her. When she came home, she got out of someone's car, buttoning her blouse. Then she took her panties out of her purse and slipped them on.

It was at that moment, while crouched behind the boat, that I noticed a hairline crack in the outboard motor mounting bracket.

Is that something I can weld, or do I need to replace the whole bracket?

The children were lined up in the cafeteria of a Catholic elementary school for lunch. At the head of the table was a large pile of apples.

The nun made a note, and posted on the apple tray:

'Take only ONE . God is watching.'

Moving further along the lunch line, at the other end of the table was a large pile of chocolate chip cookies.

A child had written a note, 'Take all you want. God is watching the apples...'

Bob and his wife started dieting a week ago.

Bob's wife proposed that they should have a cheat day today.

She brought home McDonald's and KFC wings. Bob brought home his secretary.

From his hospital bed, Bob is wondering when men will ever begin to understand women.

Bendigo: a good day, 18 people.

Coach tours will be back in 2018, keep an eye on you email, to be up-to-date with your RSL.

Thanks to those who organise the trips and all those who came along, and helped make the days so enjoyable .
Until next year
