Deb's words

Hello everyone, I'm so pleased to be able to get this out to everyone. My husband and I had a long weekend at Philip Island with the daughter, her husband, and their two children under 3 years, my God we had to come home to have a rest. I so not know how Grannies look after grand children 5 days per week. To those Grannies— I salute you.

Hope you enjoy the read, and remember if you have anything for newsletter please let me know, my number is 0404 020 525.

Phar Lap (4 October 1926-5 April 1932) Was a champion thorough bred race-horse whose achievements captured the public's imagination during the early years of the Great Depression. Foaled in New Zealand, he was trained and raced in Australia by Harry Telford. Phar Lap dominated Australian racing during a distinguished career, winning a Melbourne Cup, two Cox Plates,, an AJC Derby, and 19 other weight for age races. He then won the Agua Celiente Handicap in Tijuana, Mexico, in track-record time in his final race. After a sudden and mysterious illness, Phar Lap died in 1932 in Atherton, California. At the time, he was the third highest stakes-winner in the world.

OUR AUSTRALIAN FLAG

“They want to change our flag.” he sais,
With sad and misty eyes,
“The flag I fought so proudly for
As I saw my cobbers die.”

“We bore that flag in battle
As we marched to make a stand,
To stem the tide of terror
And keep freedom for our land.”

“Why would they want to change our flag
Of red and white and blue,
A flag that means so many things
To blokes like me and you?”

“It’s part of our great heritage,
A link with ages past,
And I feel both proud and humble
As it flutters from the mast.”

“That flag was borne so proudly
By famous Desert Rats,
It was w3ith us in the jungle
As we fought the stubborn Japs.”

“It bears the blood of Anzacs
Who all loved it to a man,
And it travelled to Korea
And the hell of Vietnam.”

“Who are those folk?” the old chap said,
“Why aren’t they satisfied?,
Why don’t they love the Aussie flag?
Why don’t they feel some pride?’

“they cannot be Australians,
They can’t be Aussie’s sons,
They must be folk from somewhere else
Who speak with foreign tongues.”

“who won thee war?” he softly said,
“did our boys all die in vain?”
And he looked at me bewildered
While his face was lined with pain.

Then I watched that frail old Digger
As he shuffled on his way,
And my voice filled with emotion
As I bade to him, “Good-day.”

So I loth the knockers of the flag
Their motives I despise,
Our present flag is the only one I’ll ever
Recognise

By J.B. Bruce McKenzie

*The “Old Digger” who inspired this poem was Bert Oliver, VX36216,2/29th Battalion,
Who was once a P.O.W. in Japanese hands.*

He was saved from execution by the dropping of the bomb on Hiroshima.

funny

I wanted to make it really special on Valentine's Day, so I tied my boyfriend up. And for three solid hours I watched whatever I wanted on TV.

Stupid question, excellent answer!

For those that don't know him, Major General Peter Cosgrove is an Australian.

General Cosgrove was interviewed on the radio recently.

Read his reply to the lady who interviewed him concerning guns and children.

FEMALE INTERVIEWER:

So, General Cosgrove, what things are you going to teach these young boys when they visit your base?

GENERAL COSGROVE:

We're going to teach them climbing, canoeing, archery and shooting..

FEMALE INTERVIEWER:

Shooting! That's a bit irresponsible, isn't it?

GENERAL COSGROVE:

I don't see why, they'll be properly supervised on the rifle range.

FEMALE INTERVIEWER:

Don't you admit that this is a terribly dangerous activity to be teaching children?

GENERAL COSGROVE:

I don't see how. We will be teaching them proper rifle discipline before they even touch a firearm.

FEMALE INTERVIEWER:

But you're equipping them to become violent killers.

GENERAL COSGROVE:

Well, Ma'am, you're equipped to be a prostitute, but you're not one, are you?

The broadcast went silent for 46 seconds and when it returned the interview was over

Daylesford

Town in Victoria, Australia

Daylesford is a town in the foothills of the Great Dividing Range of Victoria, Australia. It's known for its natural mineral springs. The leafy Wombat Hill Botanical Gardens sits atop an extinct volcano. On its grounds, a 19th-century mansion is home to the Convent Gallery. Daylesford Spa Country Railway winds through farmland and forest. Nearby, Wombat State Forest shelters rare wildlife like the spot-tailed quoll.
