Sunbury RSL Sub Branch

Throughout early April in 1918 Australian units helped defend Villers-Bretonneux from this onslaught, but at dawn on the 24th the Germans attacked and captured the town. Leading the British counter attack, the Australian 13th and 15th Brigades enveloped the town and successfully cleared it of Germans on the 25th of April, the third anniversary of the Anzac landings at Gallipoli.

The End

Deb's words

Hello Everybody,

I've been to Bali, had a wonderful time. Completely refreshed and ready for whatever is thrown at me.

ANZAC Day, I remember this year, much more than last year, but let's not talk about that.

I hope you enjoy the photos, I really loved taking them.

Think about joining us on the coach tour it is shaping up to be a really terrific day.

Be safe,
be happy.

SUNBURY RSL

you have done it again.

On behalf of The Committee and your fellow members I would like to thank all those who took part in the recent ANZAC Badge Sales Activity.

For my first time of organising this event I must say that I was amazed at the spirit of co-operation that I received from all concerned from fellow members down to the Store Managers and their staff, everyone made us welcome.

There were a few special people that I think it would be remiss of me not to mention, who as far as they were able: manned collection points, helped with relieving people & assisted with counting etc. For nearly the whole of the Appeal. These were (not in any particular order) Remy Baya, Tony Mennhenit, Nola Williams, Deita Jankovic & Harry Beckwith, I hope that I have not missed anybody. Thank you, your blood is worth bottling.

Once again we have exceeded expectations with our total collected at the end of ANZAC Day standing at $29,328.70 with still more monies to be received.

Thank you for all your assistance and I look forward to working with you all on the Remembrance Day Appeal (I have your names now, there is no escape Ha Ha)

Regards

Ken Farrow

1914 ANZAC BISCUITS

First judged in 1981
Makes: 40-50 biscuits

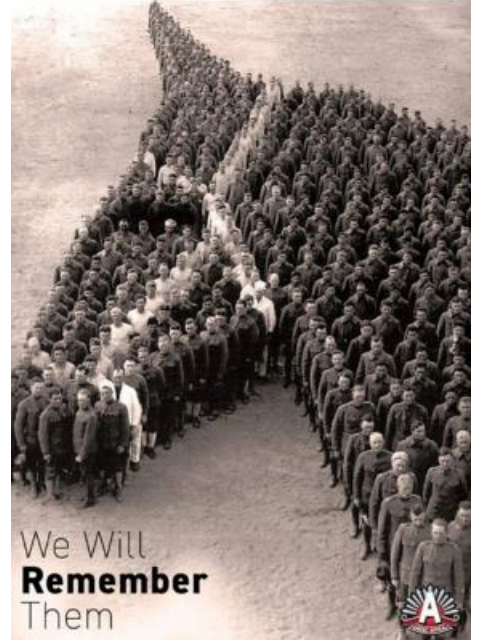

90 g (6 1/2 oz/2 cups) rolled oats
50 g (5 1/2 oz/1 cup) plain flour
65 g (5 1/2 oz/1/4 cup) sugar
25 g (4 1/2 oz) butter, cubed

1 large rounded tablespoon golden syrup
1 teaspoon bicarbonate of soda
2 tablespoons hot water

Preheat oven to 160°C (315°F/Gas 2-3). Grease two baking trays.
Mix together the oats, flour and sugar in a bowl. Melt the butter and golden syrup together, add bicarbonate of soda dissolved in the hot water. Pour into the dry ingredients and mix well.
Roll into balls the size of a walnut (or a 10-cent piece) and place on the prepared trays. Bake for about 20 minutes until golden. Move biscuit positions while hot. Allow to cool and crisp on tray.

That's

funny

And I was never asked to bring snacks to the PTA again! 🤪👉

Most senior shooters never get enough exercise. In His wisdom God decreed that senior shooters become forgetful so they would have to spend more time searching for their glasses, keys, firearms, ammo and other shooting gear, thus doing more walking, rummaging and looking. And God looked down and saw that it was good.

Then God saw there was another need. In His wisdom, He made senior shooters lose coordination so they would drop things, such as ear muffs, glasses, magazines and ammo thus requiring them to bend, reach, and stretch. And God looked down and saw that it was good.

Then God considered the function of bladders and decided senior shooters would have additional calls of nature, requiring more trips to the Loo, thus providing more walking, sitting and standing up exercises. God looked down and saw that it was good.

So, if you find as you age, you are walking more, getting up and down more, bending and reaching remember it's God's will. It is all in your best interest even though you mutter and swear under your breath.

The Sunbury RSL sub-branch would like to thank these sponsors.

APPARENTLY...

Even polite Australians are fed up with protestors.

This story was submitted by someone who witnessed the incident in an underground station in Melbourne.

“there were protestors on the Flagstaff Station concourse handing out pamphlets criticising Australia for its policy towards political refugees, Muslims who were looking for a better life, participation in the Iraq war and continued presence in Afghanistan.

I was approached by a protestor with a pamphlet but politely declined to take one.

An elderly woman behind me was getting off the escalator and a young female protestor offered her a pamphlet, which she also politely declined.

The young protestor put her hand on the woman's shoulder as a gesture of friendship and in a quiet voice said; ‘Madam, don’t you care about the children of Iraq?’

The elderly woman looked up at her and said; ‘My dear, my father died in North Africa during WW2, I lost my husband in Korea and my Grandson in Afghanistan.

All three died so you could have the right to stand here and criticise our country.

If you touch me again, I’ll stick this umbrella up your arse and trust me, I will open it.”
